PEACE FROG ARE SET TO RELEASE THEIR BRAND NEW TRACK 'BODY LANGUAGE' ON MONOMYTH RECORDS. THIS SELF PRODUCED OFFERING SHOWS A MELLOW SIDE TO THE BAND, YET THE INTRICATE GUITAR WORK AND TRADE MARK RHYTHMIC TWISTS AND TURNS ARE ALL STILL HERE WITH A LITTLE MORE ADDED SOUL. THIS TRACK IS A MUST FOR ANY SUMMER PLAYLIST.

Peace Frog, are a four piece indie band formed at Leeds Beckett University in 2016. Drawing influence from artists such as Paul Simon, Little Comets and Bombay Bicycle Club, their unique and colourful sound has created a buzz in the local and national scene over the past few years. Having gained fans including Steve Lamacq and support from BBC 6 Music as well as support slots for the likes of Cassia, PF are definitely an act to keep your eye on in 2020.

'Body language is a song about communication and the breakdown of emotional interaction that can happen in a relationship. The verses shows the inner monologue of someone failing read the other persons emotions and the lonely feeling this evokes. Ultimately the message of the song is one of coming together through openness with our emotions'.
